

By Road

From M25:

You can choose; the A3 Guildford then A31 Farnham - or - M3, A331 then A31 Farnham. On approaching Farnham you will see the large Shepherd & Flock roundabout. Keep to the right hand lanes and then filter right at the traffic lights. Turn left (this is the 2nd exit from this very large roundabout) signposted Farnham (this is the Guildford Road). Straight across at traffic lights and join East Street. Continue, follow road around Dogflud (past the Sports Centre on your left) then the road forks left and as you approach another set of traffic lights the access road to the Redgrave Theatre is on your left hand side.

From Alton (A31):

At the first roundabout before entering Farnham take the second exit and stay on the Farnham By-Pass. Approaching the second set of traffic lights (filter to the left) and turn left into South Street. Continue along the one-way system around to the right and take the right-hand fork at the T junction - go straight ahead until you reach the traffic lights. Turn left and follow the right-hand lane 360 degrees until you see the same traffic lights ahead of you and the entrance to The Redgrave Theatre on the left...

From Alton (A31):

From A287 heading south:

You will enter Farnham via Castle Street. At the T junction turn left into the one way system. Go straight ahead until you reach the traffic lights. Turn left and follow the right-hand lane 360 degrees until you see the same traffic lights ahead of you and the entrance to The Redgrave Theatre on the left...

Further details about car parks in Farnham.

By Rail

Farnham is approximately 50 minutes from London Waterloo with regular services at approximately fifty minutes to each hour and twenty minutes past. The Redgrave Theatre is approximately five minutes walk from Farnham Railway Station.

By Bus

There are a variety of bus services to Farnham. Details can be obtained from the National Traveline on 0870 608 2608 open from 08.00 to 20.00 every day.